Book of Business: Yacht & Pleasure Craft

Amlin Marine is the leading UK based insurer of pleasure craft. The account comprises of a global portfolio of yacht business as well as a home based account. The business is written through a carefully selected number of specialised pleasure craft insurance agents. A large proportion of the domestic book is written through Haven Knox-Johnston and also St Margaret's Insurance which are divisions of Amlin Underwriting Services, a wholly owned subsidiary of Amlin plc.

Biography: Bruce has worked almost constantly in the Lloyd's Yacht market since 1977. Whilst the majority of his career has been in underwriting, he is also experienced in broking yacht and commercial hull insurance. Since 1999 Bruce has been the Class Underwriter for the Yacht account and is responsible for the successful and substantial growth of this class. The team is proud of its ability to offer a professional, consistent and efficient service to brokers and clients alike.

Bruce is also responsible for the management of underwriting of the Haven and St. Margarets brands.
