Book of Business: Accident & Health

Amlin underwrites a broad international accident and health book, both on an insurance and reinsurance basis.

Classes include direct personal accident, treaty PA personal accident excess of loss, kidnap and ransom, primary and excess medical. The personal accident account consists of direct business, written both on a facultative and delegated authority basis, and a treaty account, written on a pro-rata and an excess of loss basis.

Biography: Mark joined Amlin in 1992 after graduating in Business Studies at Kingston University, later becoming an Associate of the Chartered Insurance Institute. He began his career at FC Bowring syndicate assisting on the treaty X/L account. Following the merger of the two syndicates in 1995 he joined Harvey Bowring, subsequently Amlin. Mark has underwritten accident and health since 1996.
