Company / Syndicate: Amlin / Syndicate 2001

Lloyd's location: Box No. 248 at Lloyd's, Gallery 2

Book of Business: Risk Excess of Loss

Amlin has been a lead underwriter in Risk XL reinsurance for over 50 years and has a reputation for consistency and continuity. The account is geared predominantly toward reinsurance of first line commercial and industrial insurance companies. The underwriting philosophy is founded on rigorous exposure based technical rating techniques across the insurance cycle. Our clients know that this ensures both security and consistency of approach towards their reinsurance needs.

Biography:

Kevin joined the London insurance market and Amlin in 1992 after graduating from Liverpool University in Economics and Maths.

Kevin is a leading class underwriter for US Risk excess of loss (XL) and has underwritten this class along with North American Catastrophe XL business since 1996. Prior to this, he worked on both the Direct Property and Casualty accounts.

In addition to his underwriting duties, Kevin has been involved in syndicate reserving, instrumental in the development of in-house rating models and is an ongoing member of the Lloyd's non-marine business panel.
